THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 16.

MEMPHIS. - The list of the sufferings of Memphis during the current year is very extraordinary and saddening. First, commerce by river was impossible on account of ice for two months. Next, as soon as the river was navigable the epizootic prevailed to such au extent that there were no horses to haul freight to the steamers-a fact which absolutely paralyzed trade and industry. The third calamity was the small-pox, which so frightened people that Memphis was left in want not only of necessary aid and attention, but of food. Fourth came the "indigenous" cholera, whose ravages among an already disheartened population were as severe as those of the small-pox. The cholera had not fairly run its course when the yellow fever made its appearance as the fifth scourge within ten months. Then as the sixth cause of suffering, came the financial panio, --These calamities certainly entitle Memphis to the largest measure of aid and sympathy, for nothing except a Lisbon earthquake or a Chi cago fire could cause greater suffering than that known to the people of Memphis during this year. - Balt. American.

A HERO of a new and lofty sort has been discovered on a New England railway train. Infuriated beyond endurance by the rapid and relentless appearances of the pop-corn and candy fiend, he said to him, with an almost unapproachable moral grandeur, that if any more of those perambulating refreshments were detections of the pop-corn and candy removes Stains from Marble Mantles, Tables and Statusry, from Hard-finished Walls, and from China and Porcolain. posited about him they would immediately be posited about him they would immediately be thrown out of window or on the floor. In timidated by this threat, fiend passed him once removes Stains and Grease from Carpets and nor offered the beguiling maple sugar. But other woven fabrics. the next time he made his goblin round the There is no other article known that inevitable pop-corn was bestowed upon our hero, who calmly and sweetly flung it to the further end of a long car. A neighbor, wildly emulating this noble conduct, let the "last new novel," gorgeously bound, slide gently off his knee upon an extremely dirty floor. Crushed at last, the pop corn fiend retreated with a glance of unavailing rage. We mention this as a choice Suggestion to Travellers.

Passing away! passing away!
Each Tooth Wash of a former day.
SOZODONT gives the coup de grace,
Good byte to the humbugs! let them pass.
